

Gary Owens to Headline Annual Awards Banquet

"Laugh-In" comedian-announcer Gary Owens will be master of ceremonies Wednesday, Nov. 13, during the Greater Los Angeles Press Club's 11th annual Journalism Awards Banquet.

Tickets for the banquet, at which $7,500 in cash prizes will be presented to Southland newspaper, radio, and television newsmen, are priced at $8 apiece.

Reservations may be made through the Press Club, 600 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles.

LARGEST of the 21 cash prizes are two $1,000 awards: one sponsored by the Southern California and Southern Counties Gas Co. for print media and one sponsored by the Retail Clerk's Union Local 770 and Teamster's Joint Council No. 42 in the television medium.

While Owens is best-known nationally as the 1930s-style announcer and in other comedy roles on NBC-TV's weekly "Laugh-In" comedy series, other accomplishments are his varied talents as actor, writer and show host.

An award-winning disc jockey and announcer, Owens is heard frequently as the voice of more than two dozen current radio and television commercials. He also is the lead voice for two cartoon series, Hanna-Barbera's "Space Ghost" and the syndicated "Roger Ramjet."

On Dean's List

Leland Klein, 3541 W. 170th St., has been named to the Dean's List at California State College at Los Angeles. Students must maintain a minimum grade average of 3.4 (4.0 in an "A") to be eligible for the honor.

ACCEPTS CERTIFICATE . . . Marine Whitacre, executive secretary of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors, accepts a certificate for completion of a board business administration course. Presenting the certificate is H. Harold Lippard, president of the local board. The certificate is for completion of the second year of study and was presented to Mrs. Whitacre on behalf of the Chicago National Association, Executive Officers Council.

Educators Will Hear Author

One of America's leading children's authors, educational lecturers, and television storytellers will address a group of Torrance educators Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 10 a.m. at the school district's Educational Materials Building, it was announced today by Dr. J. H. Hull, Superintendent of Schools.

Speaking at a meeting of 50 principals and administrators will be Dr. Bill Martin, editor of elementary classroom materials for the Holt, Rinehart and Winston publishing firm, who will discuss the topic "Language Approach to Reading."

A one-time high school teacher, Dr. Martin is creator of the Owl Reading Program and the Sounds of Language Reading Program. He is co-author of 18 children's books, including "Little Squeegy Bug," "Green-Eyed Stallion," and "Brave Little Indian."

HIS TELEVISION program "The Storyteller" appeared on educational television stations throughout this country and Canada for several years.

Prior to joining the publishing firm with which he is currently affiliated, he served as principal of Crow Island School in Winnetka, Ill. He has been a visiting professor at the University of Denver; the University of Kansas, Washington University in St. Louis, and the National College of Education in Evanston, Ill.

Dr. Martin received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State Teachers College and his master's degree and doctorate from Northwestern University, where he did major work in the fields of reading, listening, creative writing, and elementary education.
